	Rescinds/Amends	Adopted

All teachers must be properly certificated for their level of instructional responsibility and must possess the basic preparation in any subject area taught. A complete official transcript of credits must be filed in the Superintendent's Office along with the teaching certificate. The teaching certificate must be registered in the Office of the County Superintendent before the teacher can be paid. When additional college hours are earned the teacher must obtain current transcripts and file them in the Superintendent's Office.
