

Senior Newsletter April 7

Thank you notes!

It is always appropriate to send a "thank you" note for scholarships and awards you have received. An inexpensive package of blank note cards or "thank you" cards can be purchased and a short note written inside that expresses your gratitude for the scholarship/award and your plans for the future. Two/three sentences are usually sufficient. If you would like further assistance with this, please see a counselor.
